8. Photographs and videotapes of defendants with coconspirators and assets obtained from drug proceeds;
9. Mobile cellular telephones, pagers and other related equipment and the contents thereof, including antennas and power sources;
10. Unauthorized access devices, commonly known as cellular telephone cloning devices, and the contents thereof; and
11. Money counting machines.

This warrant does not authorize the "seizure" of computers and related media within the meaning of Rule 41(c) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Rather this warrant authorizes the removal of computers and related media so that they may be searched in a secure environment. The search of any computer shall be conducted pursuant to the following protocol: With respect to the search of any computers or electronic storage devices seized from the premises identified herein, the search procedure of electronic data contained in any such computer may include the following techniques (the following is a non-exclusive list, and the government may use other procedures that, like those listed below, minimize the review of information not within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein):

- a. examination of all of the data contained in such computer hardware, computer software, and/or memory storage devices to determine whether that data falls within the items to be seized as set forth herein;
- b. searching for and attempting to recover any deleted, hidden, or encrypted data to determine whether that data falls within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein (any data that is encrypted and unreadable will not be returned unless law enforcement personnel have determined that the data is not (1) an instrumentality of the offenses, (2) a fruit of the criminal activity, (3) contraband, (4) otherwise unlawfully possessed, or (5) evidence of the offenses specified above);
- c. surveying various file directories and the individual files they contain to determine whether they include data falling within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein;
- d. opening or reading portions of files in order to determine whether their contents fall within the items to be seized as set forth herein;
- e. scanning storage areas to discover data falling within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein, to possibly recover any such recently deleted data, and to search for and recover deliberately hidden files falling within the list of items to be seized; and/or
- f. performing key word searches through all electronic storage areas to determine whether occurrences of language contained in such storage areas exist that are likely to appear in the evidence described in Attachment B.

Any computer systems and electronic storage devices removed from the premises during the search will be returned to the premises within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 30 days, as dictated by the volume and complexity of the items seized, excluding any items or materials deemed to be contraband or materially relevant to this investigation, or unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
